Re: File no. 2145410

Dear Mr. Dulles:

As you are no doubt aware, a recent automobile inspection contact was conducted, whereby Mrs. Dulles was interviewed. This action was taken through clerical oversight, and we wish to offer this further explanation.

As a part of our established underwriting program, routine inspections are periodically ordered as the information gained is an important factor, necessary for sound underwriting.

One occasion for such routine inspections is upon receipt of first notification that the policyholder has retired or has reached the age of 65. Consequently, based on the latter, the inspection check in this instance was ordered by the clerical staff in our renewal section.

We are certainly sorry for this oversight, but are pleased to learn that the only contact made was with Mrs. Dulles. We assure you, Mr. Dulles, that the policy file has been properly noted, to avoid such routine action in the future.

Your understanding in this matter is appreciated and we look forward to serving your insurance requirements for many years to come.

Very truly yours,

R. L. Newberry
